1-2-3-Summer Fun for You and Me

The Lucy Craft Laney Museum of Black History is offering four one-week Summer Camp sessions that will focus on art, history and preservation activities for youth, six through seventeen years old.

Curriculum includes computer skills, arts and crafts, field trips, music, environmental science, and history. Activities will include trips to Hickory Hill, a television station, the Morris Museum of Art, Pendleton King Park, historic tours of the Laney Walker District. Children will also explore nature painting, collage making, computer graphics, music and singing activities, “pick your historic hero” computer fun, and more. Activities will be age specific.

Sessions will run Monday through Friday, 10am – 2pm
At the Lucy Craft Laney Museum of Black History
1116 Phillips Street, in the historic Laney-Walker District

Session 1: June 1-5, 2009
Session 2: June 8-12, 2009
Session 3: June 15-19, 2009
Session 4: June 22-26, 2009

Cost is $125 for those who do not qualify for a scholarship.

Parents must be present from 9am-10am on the first day of each Session for orientation.
