BOOK TALK

4:00pm to 5:00pm
Cameron McWhirter
 Author Talk about his book
Red Summer

Cameron will discuss his book about the Summer of 1919 when racial unrest rolled across the nation and the first stirring of the Civil Rights fight began. Millions of lives were disrupted, and hundreds of lives were lost. Blacks responded by fighting back with an intensity never seen before.

Cameron Whirter is a staff reporter for the Wall Street Journal. Based in Atlanta, he covers politics, economics, breaking news and other subjects. Prior to joining the Wall Street Journal in 2010 he worked for several news organizations including the Atlanta Journal-Constitution and the Detroit News.

He is the author of Red Summer: The Summer of 1919 and the Awakening of Black America.

BOOK SIGNING
