

WINTER 2018 MASTER CLASS WORKSHOP SERIES

With Legendary Ballerina KAREN BROWN

@ The Salvation Army Kroc Center

1833 Broad St., Augusta, GA 30904

Saturday, 11/17/2018 from 12:30pm 2:30pm

“In Conversation with Karen Brown” (2 hours) FREE

A lecture demonstration of the techniques that Ms. Brown will be teaching at the Kroc Center including classical ballet, computerized motion analysis (CMA) and Reinforced Motor Function (RMF) for Ballet Application. Participants will have an opportunity to sample the curriculums and register for one master class workshop or the entire series. Hold your spot for $25. ($25 will be returned when you pay in full.).

Saturday after Thanksgiving 11/24/2018.

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| 12:30pm – 1:30pm | 1-hour Lecture Demonstration - "How to Audition". No cap on # of participants. $25/person |
| 2:00pm – 5:00pm | 3-hour Workshop focusing on Pirouettes and Turns. $75/person
Principles from Reinforced Motor Function for Ballet Application will be introduced. This workshop will also utilize Computerized Motion Analysis. Maximum number of participants is 40. Age 12 years and older or by invitation. Parents and Guardians are welcome to observe. |

Saturday, 12/1/2018

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| 12:30pm - 1:30pm | 1-hr Lecture Demonstration entitled "All About Pointe". $25/dancer
No cap on # of participants. (parents & teachers free) |
| 2:00pm – 5:00pm | 3-hr workshop focusing on strengthening feet & legs for Pointe work. $75/person
Principles from Reinforced Motor Function for Ballet Application will be introduced. Ms. Brown will provide feedback on dancer's pointe shoes and share tips and tricks of the trade. Maximum number of participants is 40. Dancers need at least two to four years of training in ballet technique, with a good attendance record, before going on pointe. Other forms of dance, or classes that mix ballet with other forms, don't count. Parents and Guardians are welcome to observe. |

Saturday, 12/08/2018

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| 12:30pm - 1:30pm | 1-hour Lecture Demonstration on "Injury Prevention". $25/dancer
No cap on # of participants. Parents and Guardians are invited to attend. |
| 2:00pm – 5:00pm | 3-hour Workshop focusing on Jumps/Ballon. $75/dancer
Ms. Brown shares best practices on how to effortlessly become airborne, float in the air and land softly. This workshop will utilize Computerized Motion Analysis. Maximum number of participants is 40. Age 12 years and older or by invitation. Parents and Guardians are welcome to observe. |